

CONTENTS

Editorial	99
News and Notes	102
Leprosy Workers Honoured—Leprosy in the World—The Work of the World Health Organization in 1972—World Health Organization-Report of The 25th Assembly, 1972—Twenty-sixth World Health Assembly—Widespread Dissatisfaction about Health Services—LEPRA Essay Competition—ALERT, 1972—Progress at ALERT—The Changing Picture at Valbonne, France—Progress in Dakar—India—Background to Leprosy—Madagascar—Gandhi Memorial Leprosy Foundation—Annual Report, 1971–72—ELEP and Leprosy Research—ELEP in Rome—The Armadillo
Dopa Metabolism by Mycobacterium leprae : Its Implications in Culture of the Bacillus and Chemotherapy of Leprosy, by K. PRABHAKARAN. . . .	112
“Mobile” Leprosy Control in the Luapula Province of Zambia, by B. JOGAN and I. ROGERS	120
The Treatment of Corticosteroid-dependent Lepromatous Patients in Persistent Erythema Nodosum Leprosum with Clofazimine, by F. M. J. H. IMKAMP	127
Radiographic Examination of the Feet, by A. GRACE WARREN	131
Letters to the Editor	139
Book Review	142
Abstracts	143