

CONTENTS

Editorial

Is there a decline in leprosy publications and research? W. CAIRNS SMITH

Original Articles

- 4 Serological reactivity to a synthetic analog of phenolic glycolipid I and early detection of leprosy in an area of low endemicity. ELBA GONZALEZ-ABREU, J. A. PON, P. HERNANDEZ, J. RODRIGUEZ, EUMELIA MENDOZA, MARIA HERNANDEZ, E. CUEVAS and A. B. GONZALEZ
- 13 Management of leprosy on the basis of the epidemiology of disabilities. R. GANAPATI, C. R. REVANKAR and S. KINGSLEY
- 18 Leprosy in Myanmar, epidemiological and operational changes, 1958–92. TIN MYINT and MYO THET HTOON
- 28 Reference values for touch sensibility thresholds in healthy Nepalese volunteers. C. M. KETS, M. E. VAN LEERDAM, W. H. VAN BRAKEL, W. DEVILLE and F. W. BERTELSMANN
- 39 The role of village leaders in the implementation of multidrug therapy for leprosy, Sudan—a pilot study in the Angasana Hills. KHALAFALLA M. AHMED and MOHAMED SALAH EL TAHIR

Special Articles

- 47 Lepra India, Annual Report 1994
- 68 Prevention of disability in leprosy—ILEP Medical Bulletin
- 73 Teaching Materials and Services; News and Notes
Drug information, Bibliographic Resources, Essential Drugs Monitor • International Publications • WHO/PHC and Drug-related Newsletters • Resource Organizational/Services • Bibliography on Teaching and Learning Material: Leprosy-related Subjects—entries invited • Midwives who dispense MDT drugs, Myanmar • Implementing Multiple Drug Therapy, OXFAM—withdrawal • Erratum